There is a sacred journey, that we travel, called life's journey, and a creative writing class is being held at our Yoga centre, once a month, to lift the veil of our memory, and pen to paper the wonderful experiences that have carried us to who we are to-day, this very moment. Some may have writing experience and some none, no matter, so together we will share, help and enjoy the bonding of friendship and fun, of experiencing the transformation of a clearer understanding of ourselves by peeling away the layers of self mystery.....and create a story unique from all others.....
We will also share our writings, story telling and poetry. Remember to bring along your pens, pencils, clip board, photos of a special friend, or crystal or any object that is special to you that you may want to share, show and tell about.
